Power of Prayer.

Isaiah 40:31 – soaring high on wings like eagles.

Aviator's Prayer – "Almighty God, thank you for my flying passion and ability to pursue it. Guide me today with your protective hand. Cause my aircraft to perform eagerly according to my every input. Give me wisdom beyond my training for what I might encounter. Reveal yourself through the amazing sights that I will see. Make me a better pilot, and always remind me of how blessed I am to fly today. Amen."

How privileged we are to fly and have the ability to introduce others to the joy of flying. 'High flight' was written by John G. McGee in 1941. He turned down a scholarship to Yale to go and fight in WWII by joining the Canadian RAF and was sent to England in the Spitfire. He died in a mid-air collision with a training aircraft. The original high flight poem is still in the Library of Congress.
